1. Fremantle Railway Station – The first rail line from Perth opened in 1881. The station building was built in 1907 and the precinct is now the hub of Fremantle's public transport system.
2. Pioneer Reserve – Historic parkland used for many civic purposes since the early 1900's.
3. Spare Parts Puppet Theatre – Developed as a commercial building in 1905, vested in the City of Fremantle in 1975 and converted to the Spare Parts Puppet theatre in 1985.
4. Ernest & Peter Taylor Memorial – Commemorating two young English migrants who died in Western Australia in 1905.
5. High Street Mall – Converted into a pedestrian mall in the 1990s and the centre of Fremantle's shopping precinct.
6. Cappuccino Strip – Renowned for its coffee houses and small restaurants.
7. Fremantle Markets – Fremantle's famous public market, built on the north-west corner of the former Imperial Convict Establishment. The markets capture the atmosphere of the Victorian era.
8. Esplanade Hotel – Fremantle's prime 4 star hotel built in a colonial architectural style.
9. The Esplanade – The City's major parkland which is the venue for many annual events and festivals.
10. Panter, Harding & Goldwyer Monument/Maitland Brown Plaque – A monument that now marks both sides of a tragic event.
11. Notre Dame University – A wonderful opportunity to see first-hand how some of the West End's most historic buildings have been recycled and to hear the story of Australia's only private Catholic university.
12. Maritime Museum Shipwreck Gallery – The Maritime Museum houses the finest maritime archaeological collection in Australia.
13. Fremantle Fishing Boat Harbour – The location of much of Fremantle's America's Cup activity now features a variety of cafés and restaurants. A memorial in honour of those who established the Western Australian fishing industry was unveiled at the harbour in 2004.
14. Kidogo Arthouse – A former kerosene store, now the Kidogo Arthouse, an independent art centre offering custom designed fully equipped "art-holidays" for visitors to Fremantle.
15. Bathers Beach – The site where Captain Charles Howe Fremantle landed in 1829 and proclaimed the land as British territory. Is also a good place to swim!
16. Round House – The Swan River Colony's first civil gaol. The Round House is WA's oldest remaining building. Tours of the Round House are available.
17. Whalers Tunnel & Cliffs – The Whalers Tunnel was built by the Fremantle Whaling Company in 1837 to provide whalers with access to the town from the jetty and Bathers Beach.
18. Barwil House – Formally Dalgety and Company Bond Store, the building was erected in 1902 for the merchants and shipping agents Dalgety & Co. The building was recycled and converted into apartments in 1997.
19. Fremantle Ports Building – Built in 1963, this building is Fremantle Ports' administration head office.
20. C.Y. O'Connor Statue – This bronze sculpture pays tribute to its namesake, a brilliant engineer and one time Fremantle resident who designed the Mundaring to Goldfields water pipeline as well as the Fremantle Harbour.
21. WA Maritime Museum – The museum features America's Cup winning yacht Australia II and fascinating stories of WA's maritime history.
22. Submarine Ovens – The Oberon class submarine ovens is a Maritime Museum exhibit which serves as a living memorial to submariners and those who gave their lives while serving from Fremantle during WWII.
23. Leeuwin Ocean Adventure Foundation – Home base and administration centre of sail training ship Leeuwin.
24. Fremantle Harbour – Western Australia's main shipping port is one of the five major general cargo ports in Australia.
25. E Shed – E Shed was moved from its original harbourside location in 1996, and was recycled for use as the E Shed Markets.
26. O'Connor Landing – Is the Rottneest Island Ferry and Swan River Ferry Terminal - Fremantle's passenger ferry terminal.
27. The Old Police Station, Victoria Quay – Originally (1912) an Immigration and Information Bureau this heritage building has served many uses over the years.
